

MOPOKE

- Trovare -

MOPOKE is an enchanting night bird of prey from Oceania: at the antipodes of the day, at the antipodes of geography.

Mopoke is an italian electric trio, flying over opposites: sweetness and power, rock and velvet, poetry and cynicism coexist but do not collide, suspended between the "time zones" of post-rock and those of European jazz. Mopoke is music that travels and moves. "Trovare" (To find), their debut and forthcoming album, is entirely made up of original pieces by the three musicians.

The music was recorded and engineered by Ronnie Amighetti at Le KlubHaus in Brescia.
